NEWSFLASH - NOV 2016

Florida area, including Miami and West Palm Beach. The non-stop service to Fort Lauderdale will be operated by a Boeing 777-200LR in a three-class configuration, eight first-class suites, 42 business-class lie-flat beds and 216 economy-class seats.

SUSPEND PEAK SEASON BIOMETRIC CAPTURING BARSA

The Department of Home Affairs must suspend biometric capturing at South Africa's airports for the duration of the peak season said the Board of Airline Representatives South Africa (Barsa). A shortage of trained immigration officials capable of capturing biometrics is leading to lengthy delays for international travellers, even causing them to miss connecting flights. The decision by the Department of Home Affairs to not employ additional immigration staff due to budget constraints will need to be re-assessed before December.

KENYA AND EMIRATES SUSPEND FLIGHTS

Emirates and Kenya Airways will both suspend flights to Abuja indefinitely. Emirates can confirm that it's suspending its four times weekly service between Abuja, Nigeria, and Dubai. The decision was made after a review of the airline's operations to ensure the best utilisation of its aircraft fleet for its overall business objectives. The airline continues to serve Nigeria with a daily flight to and from Lagos.
